

FAST TRAIN HIT MAN AT NELSON; INJURIES FATAL

JOSEPH MOHAN, CHICAGO, WAS STRUCK ON NELSON BRIDGE
—THROWN INTO RIVER.

DIED AT HOSPITAL SOON AFTER

Only Visible Injuries Were Cut On the Scalp and Fractured Fore Arm.

Joseph Mohan of Chicago was hit by the Los Angeles Limited passenger train No. 8, eastbound, on the North-western road as he was crossing the railroad bridge over Rock river west of Nelson this morning at about 8 o'clock. He was thrown into the air and fell into the stream but was rescued by a fisherman who was near the bridge at the time in a row boat. He was put on the train and brought to this city and rushed to the hospital but died at 11 o'clock, without having fully regained consciousness.

The unfortunate man was one of a crew sent to Nelson a few days ago by a Chicago labor agency to work for the Northwestern road there. Mohan was not satisfied with the work and wages paid so this morning he and a companion, M. V. Livingston, started to walk to Sterling. They started west on the track and as they neared the bridge noticed a westbound freight on the south track and crossed to the north track. They were but part way over the bridge when the fast passenger train appeared before them.

Train Hit Mohan.

Livingston was able to get off the track but Mohan was not quick enough and the train struck him, threw him into the air and he fell into the air and he fell into the river on the north side of the bridge. Roy Knease was close by in a row boat at the time and as he saw the man hurled into the water he went to his rescue and managed to get him into his boat as soon as he came to the surface of the water.

As soon as the engineer of the train saw he had struck the man he applied the air and stopped the train as soon as possible. Mohan was taken aboard and brought to Dixon and taken to the hospital. His only external injuries were a scalp wound and a fractured left fore arm. It was quickly seen by the attending physician that he had also sustained internal injuries. He gradually grew weaker and died at 11 o'clock.

Mohan was about 45 years old and as far as known resides in Chicago, where he is thought to have a brother. Papers on his person will be opened on the arrival of Coroner George Stephan from Ashton to try to learn further particulars. The inquest will be held late this afternoon.

ILLINOIS HIGHWAYS DISGRACE TO STATE

GOV. DUNNE TELLS SOME PLAIN
FACTS AT CELEBRATION
IN CHICAGO.

TWENTY-THIRD IN ROAD STATUS

(Associated Press)

Chicago, Oct. 9.—More highways and waterways are essential for the future development of Illinois, said Gov. Dunne at the Dixie Highway celebration here today. "Although this state is the first in agriculture, railway development, second in the production of all wealth among the United States, third in population and commercial and political importance, and third in nearly everything in which she is not first or second, there is one notable exception," he said.

"Among the states of the United States, Illinois is 23rd in the development of her highways. This is not only a disgrace to the state but a limitation upon its future development or a serious character.

Land Is Valuable.

"Even without decent highways the land of the state of Illinois, per acre, is worth nearly three times the average of the land of the United States. What would be its value if its roadways were developed? Probably four or five times the average value of the land of the United States. It is therefore, time that the state of Illinois should arouse itself from its lethargy in the way of road building. It is the duty of every citizen to become interested in the road development of the state."

"ARE YOU READY, MR. PRESIDENT?" ALL RIGHT; LET THE WORLD'S SERIES GAME COMMENCE.

Photos by American Press Association.

President Wilson's announcement that he would travel to Philadelphia to see the second game of the world's series between the Phillies and the Red Sox on Oct. 9 made the fans happy. It was also reported that he would throw out the first ball used in the contest and that the president and a guest party, consisting of Secretary Tamm, Dr. Cary T. Grayson, his naval aide, and Miss Helen Woodrow Jones, his cousin, would view the game from a box on the right field side of the grand stand, near the home players' bench. Mr. Wilson was invited to the games in Philadelphia about two weeks ago by President William F. Baker of the Philadelphia club. The president is not a rabid fan, but takes considerable interest in the national game, having the White House frequently in the summer to see the Washington Americans play. Crowded For Brilliant
Event

At three o'clock today St. Luke's was thronged with the hundreds of guests invited by Miss Lucille Lyon Reynolds to witness her wedding to John Gould Ralston. In the church Lundstrom of Sterling had spent hours decorating and a background, beautiful beyond description, of solid green, palms and ferns—relieved by large bunches of white Easter lilies, and forming just the correct setting for the fairy colors of the gowns of the bridal party was evolved. The bride had chosen the hydrangea, in all its transcendent beauty of changing colors, to furnish the color idea for the gowns of her bridesmaids, and the result was a dream of faint hydrangea greens, blues, and lavenders. A canopy of canvas had been erected from the street to the church through which the wedding party passed into the quaint stone edifice.

DETECTIVES AT LOSS TO EXPLAIN THEFT

RAILROAD OFFICIALS "STUMP-ED" BY WIRE THEFT
NEAR DIXON.

There have been no developments in the theft of wire from poles along the Illinois Central right of way on Thursday night. Special Agent Briggs for the road went carefully over the ground yesterday and is at a loss to know how the 4,000 feet of wire was secured, as no new marks of spurs are shown on the poles to which the wire was fastened. The wire taken was No. 9 copper wire, put up about a year ago and was taken from poles from the Northwestern road cutoff. The wire weighed about 175 pounds and is valued at about $30. It is believed it was cut into small pieces and placed in a suit case and carried to an auto or rig in waiting on a nearby road in which the thieves made their get-away.

A buggy in which were riding Mrs. Louis Bartholome and sister, Mrs. Margaret Fane, was struck by an automobile south of town Friday morning, but fortunately the only damage done was a bent axle and cracked reach. The accident happened near the Illinois Central bridge on the Peoria road. The ladies secured the license number of the machine as 99895 and according to the list issued by the Secretary of State this number was issued to Peter J. Hoyle of Rural Route No. 8, Dixon.

CASE

PROMINENT ATTORNEYS IN CASE

The jury found for the defendant in the case of Barbara Groth against her son Henry Groth tried in the circuit court Friday. The suit had been brought to collect on two notes of $200 each which the plaintiff alleges had been given her for rent of a farm and which the defendant claimed had been paid.

A decree of divorce was granted C. A. Lebkuehner against his wife, Tilly Lebkuehner, the case not being contested. While court was open for a while this morning there was practically no work of importance taken up.

One of the most closely contested cases to be taken up during the present term will be called in court on Monday afternoon, being a damage suit for $25,000 brought by George R. Korpp of Galesburg against Charles F. Housh, a traveling man, for alienation of his wife's affections. The suit is one of prominence from the fact of the amount of the damages asked and the attorneys who will appear in the case. The plaintiff has retained Charles Erbstein of Chicago, who is considered one of the greatest criminal

BABY BOY RAN TO DEATH; AUTO FENDER HIT HIM

ARTHUR KRUG, AGED THREE,
MET TRAGIC DEATH IN NORTH DIXON.

RAN INTO DAHLER AUTOMOBILE

Was Knocked Aside, But Suffered Injuries Which Caused Death Soon.

Within sight of his home, little Arthur Krug, the three and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. August Krug, 329 West Chamberlain street, was struck by an automobile at his morning as he rushed into the street while his mother was preparing the noonday meal, and died a half hour later from the injuries sustained.

The little fellow was playing about the yard and ran into the street as the delivery auto of Albert Daehler, grocer, was passing. The driver of the car did not notice the little fellow until he was almost by the side of the car. The fender of the machine struck him on the side of the head and threw him to the street, out of the path of the car. He was carried into the house and a physician was summoned immediately. He was unconscious from the time of the accident until his death, a half hour later. He is believed to have suffered an internal hemorrhage, as blood purged from his nostrils and mouth.

The accident as told by witnesses seems to have been practically unavoidable and it would be hard to attach blame to the driver of the machine. The auto was not moving fast at the time of the accident and the little fellow ran into the street just as the car came along. The inquest will be held this evening.

The parents have the sympathy of all in their bereavement. Little Arthur was a bright little fellow whom one could not help but notice. Besides his parents he leaves a little sister, Helen, aged six months.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of his parents and at 3 o'clock at the German Lutheran church.

Vest Pocket Essays

By GEORGE FITCH
Author of "At Good Old Siwash"
AMERICAN COLLEGES—WILLIAMS

Williams belongs to the old-family class of American colleges. It was founded in 1793, at Williamstown, Mass., and only 26 schools in the country are older.

Some of the 20 have grown into enormous institutions with big bins full of money and enough alumni to fill a Roman coliseum. But Williams has always remained small and satisfied. It does not boot the eager young freshman away from its doors, but whenever it gets 500 students it raises the entrance requirements a little and keeps down its population. It costs $175 per year in tuition and fees to attend Williams, which also helps in discouraging the swarms to some extent.

Williams is now a rich college with fine buildings and can afford to provide a preceptor for each six or eight students. Its students live in magnificent Greek letter chapter houses costing from $30,000 to $75,000 apiece and many a poor student from a decayed New England farm learns to handle a porte cochere or pergola with skill and grace during his course. Williams has more chapter house property than any school in the country except Cornell.

Early in the last century, Williams was a very poor and struggling college and had a president named Mark Hopkins and a student named James A. Garfield. Garfield made Williams famous by becoming president of the United States and he made Mark Hopkins famous by declaring that a log with Hopkins at one end and a student at the other was good enough for him. Later on he raised a son who is now president of Williams. There have been many loyal college alumni, but few so useful to their college as Garfield was.

Williams has an endowment of $2,000,000 and about 6,000 alumni, who are said to be more prosperous, man for man, than any other set of alumni in the country. There was a time when Williams, Dartmouth and Amherst fought together happily each year, but Dartmouth has grown so big now that it is only happy when it is fighting Harvard. Thus the chief end of Williams is to beat Amherst at football, baseball, track, chess and debate.

Williams is very useful to the cause of education in this country, because it is one of the few institutions in America which has no desire to get any larger. Captains of industry who are not content with the prosperous factory until they have doubled its size and quadrupled its debt should be required to take a short course in small scale perfection at this college.

Whose Head?

A teacher was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood. Trying to make the matter clearer, he said: "Now, boys, if I stood on my head, the blood as you know, would run into it, and I should turn red in the face."

"Yes, sir," said the boys.

"Now," continued the teacher "what I want to know is this: 'How is it that while I am standing upright in the ordinary position the blood does not rush into my feet?'"

And a little fellow shouted: "Why, sir, because your feet ain't empty."

500 REPORTED DEAD, $12,000,000 DAMAGE IN STORM AND FLOOD ON THE GULF COAST.

TWO VIEWS OF DAMAGE DONE BY FLOOD IN NEW ORLEANS

It is feared that the total dead in the storm on the Gulf of Mexico coast will number 500. Property damage in New Orleans and throughout the storm swept territory has been enormous. Relief parties returning to New Orleans from the delta section said that rich plantations in that section had been wiped out, crops ruined, orange trees destroyed, buildings washed out to sea and that the country for miles was under water four to fifteen feet deep. The levees in many places have been destroyed, making a new menace to the inhabitants and rendering more difficult the work of rehabilitation. River pilots expressed the opinion that it would be impossible to reconstruct the levees in many places for some time. While no official estimate has been obtainable of the damage in Louisiana and along the Mississippi coast, persons familiar with the territory believe that it will approximate $12,000,000. This estimate is considered conservative. Relief work is progressing rapidly, due in great part to the quick recovery made in New Orleans and in larger cities from the effects of the hurricane.

Miller Eighth Among Batters Of Federal League For Season

(Associated Press)
Chicago, Oct. 9.—For the eighth time in his career Ty Cobb is champion batter of the American League, according to the averages published here today. Beginning in 1907 the Detroit player led the hitters in every season except in 1908 when the official scores gave Criss of St. Louis the palm, he having batted .341 in 64 games to Cobb's .324 in 150.

Today Cobb's average for the season just ended is .369.

In stolen bases the Georgian has set a new league record at 97 for the season. The old mark for the American league was 88, credited to Milan or Washington in 1912.

In runs scored Cobb is ahead with 144 and leads in total bases with 271. These following Cobb in batting, who have played in at least half the games, are: E. National League.

Larry Doyle of New York is the National's champion with an average of .315. Cravath of Philadelphia led in runs scored with 88; in total bases with 268 and in home runs with 24—one below the big league record set by Buck Freeman of Washington in 1899. Manager Herzog was the leading base stealer with 34.

FIRE DRILLS ARE HELD IN SCHOOLS FRIDAY

FIRE PREVENTION DAY OBSERVED IN THIS CITY BY THE CHILDREN.

Today was designated as "Fire Prevention day" by proclamation issued by the Governor. In many cities it was a general clean-up day and was further observed by drills by the fire departments. At the schools the day was observed Friday and fire drills were held by the children. At the E. C. Smith school an alarm was sounded at 3:30 o'clock and a call was sent to the fire department. The children have been drilled in seeing how rapidly the building can be emptied without confusion and the way the children get out speaks well for the way in which the principal, Miss Gantz, has conducted the drills. The department had a stream of water playing on the roof of the building within two minutes from the time they left the station. The children were lined up on the east side of the school yard to watch the firemen.

JOHN D. JR. HOLDS FATHER MODEL MAN

Magnate Defended After Long "Years of Abuse."

Denver, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., for the first time made a long public defense of his father in an address to more than 500 members of the Chamber of Commerce. He said:

"Whatever you people of Colorado have found in me that is worthy is due to my sainted mother and my honored father. I want to assure you my father is one of the best men alive."

"My father worked on a farm as a boy, and went from that into business. He carried the farmer boy's simplicity with him. He is still concerned in the welfare of the humblest employe about his house."

"For years he has been maligned and abused, yet he has not one particle of bitterness in his heart. All is kindness in his nature."

AMUNDSEN ABANDONS TRIP

European War and Panama Slides Interfere With Drifting Plans.

New York, Oct. 9.—Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the south pole and navigator of the only vessel that ever went through the North West passage, has abandoned his drifting expedition across the north pole, according to information received in this city.

The European war and the choking of the Panama canal, by which route he was waiting to approach the Arctic from the Pacific, compelled the explorer to forsake the proposed journey which has been his ambition for nearly ten years.

At her home on East Chamberlain street last evening, Little Alice Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Anderson, was hostess to a party of fourteen of her little schoolmates and girl friends, in honor of her thirteenth birthday. The party was given for various reasons, until the happy event of last evening. Alice, assisted by her sister and brothers, made the time pass pleasantly for all the guests, among the features of the entertainment being music and a delicious and bountiful supper. At about 9:30 o'clock the guests dispersed, all being accompanied to their homes, and Alice was the recipient of many presents, as well as congratulations and wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Convention Closed

Enjoyable sessions have featured the Northern Illinois Lutheran Missionary Convention which was held here at St. Paul's throughout, and Thursday evening's and Friday morning's were not a whit behind the others in the matter of interest.

Friday evening's talk by Mrs. Leonard, returned missionary from Africa, was particularly instructive. Mrs. Leonard worked in the south before going to Africa and knows the much mooted negro question from all sides. Miss Hollman of Freeport sang a beautiful solo to a highly appreciative audience, and Elmer Rice was equally well received. The evening service followed a most enjoyable banquet served by the ladies of the church. 125 partook of the good things furnished. Friday morning's session, though somewhat broken because of the fact that it was the closing one, had much of interest.

Thursday afternoon's session was given over largely to the election of officers. The following is the list of those elected:

President—Mrs. J. S. Maloney, Polo.

Vice President of the Chicago Conference—Mrs. C. J. Driever, Chicago.

Vice President of the Northern Conference—Mrs. E. C. Harris, Sterling.

Vice President of the Southern Conference—Mrs. W. I. Guss, Peoria.

Recording Secretary—Miss Eva Hollman, Mt. Carroll.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. L. A. Beard, Polo.

Treasurer—Mrs. H. A. Kingsbury, Washington.

Historian—Mrs. H. Longman, Mt. Morris.

Decision was made at the Friday morning session to hold the next convention at Princeton, Ill.

Attended Grand Chapter

Misses Alma Moeller and Margaret Anderson returned Thursday evening from Chicago where they attended the Grand Chapter, O. E. S. Miss Moeller as delegate and Miss Anderson as a past worthy matron of the Dixon lodge. Mrs. Rodney Ayres, worthy matron of the lodge at the present time, was also in attendance and is still in the city. The Grand Chapter was the largest ever held, over 1600 delegates alone being in attendance. Invitations were extended from Springfield for the next meeting.

Furnished Music

Miss Myrtle Rice and brother Curtis furnished the music for the dinner dance given in connection with the Reynolds-Ralston festivities at Grand Detour last evening.

Socialists' Dance

The Socialists will give their usual week end dance at their hall this evening.

At the Kingdom

On Wednesday evening at the Kingdom church the ladies of the church have arranged for a box social and entertainment. A short program will be an enjoyable feature.

L. G. O. D. Club

Miss Ellen Burk entertained the L. G. O. club, recently organized, last evening at her home on Spruce street. An enjoyable evening was spent and towards its close, delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Miss Gladys Coffey.

Mystic Workers

A very enthusiastic meeting was held by the Mystic Workers last evening, a large crowd being present. The regular business was transacted and a class was taken into the Order, the degree team putting on the work in a very creditable manner.

Another membership campaign started last evening, the men forming one team and the ladies the other. Two good prizes will be awarded at the close of the year, providing enough new members are secured to make up the 150. This will be the most exciting contest that the local lodge has held this year and a great deal of fun is expected. The losing side will banquet the winning side at the close of the contest.

After the meeting, the men served a delicious luncheon to nearly 100 people, and they deserve much credit.

Gave Birthday Party

Master Harold Allen Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith, gave a birthday party yesterday afternoon to ten of his little friends at his home 502 E. Everett street, N. Dixon. Games and refreshments made the afternoon a very pleasant one. The decorations were in pink and white and the big pyramid birthday cake, in pink and white, with white candles, was a beauty. Master Harold received many very nice birthday presents.

Surprise Mrs. Hintz

Mrs. Henry Hintz, whose birthday fell on Friday, was pleasantly surprised at her home at Brookside farm last evening by a number of her kinfolk and friends. Miss Mary Hintz her daughter, was the prime instigator of the surprise and it was cleverly managed. Mrs. Hintz was planning to go to Dixon to attend the regular meeting of Dorothy chapter, O. E. S., when one after another automobiles began to pour into the Hintz yard. As Mrs. Hintz's sons conduct a garage nothing was thought of the first few but soon the number was too great, and Mrs. Hintz drew her own conclusions, and hastened Gladys Smith and Miss Mary Hintz, about forty.

After a bountiful scramble dinner an enjoyable program was given. Miss Mary Hintz and Miss Ora Floto played a piano duet, a second piano duet was executed by Miss Gladys Smith and Miss Mary Hintz. Miss Ora Floto gave a number of vocal selections, and readings were given by Mrs. Charles Floto and Mrs. Winnifred Frye.

During the course of the evening, Mr. Soper, in a happy presentation speech, voicing the appreciation of the guests of their hostess and the hospitality of the Hintz home, gave, in behalf of the guests, a handsome damask table cloth. Mrs. Hintz, responded expressing her gratitude for the gift and her pleasure in the occasion.

Box Social

The Volunteers of the Prairieville church will give a box social on Thursday evening, Oct. 13th, at Paulmyra town hall.

WELL-KNOWN PEORIA WOMAN SPEAKS.

Peoria, Ill.—"For a whole year I was down in bed and under the doctor's care. I weighed 90 pounds when I should have weighed 130 or more. Nothing seemed to get me up or give me strength until I learned of 'Favorite Prescription.' A neighbor dropped in and told me what 'Favorite Prescription' had done for his wife. I stopped the doctor's medicine. After using the 'Prescription' I gained very fast. The second bottle completely restored my strength, and my trouble has never come back. Since I used 'Favorite Prescription' I have weighed at times over 150 pounds. It gives more strength than any other remedy."—Mrs. Lou Jones, 3200 N. Adams St., Peoria, Ill.

RALSTON - REYNOLDS WEDDING CELEBRATED

favorite of the bride; and the Prize Song from Wagner's "The Meistersinger" were played by Mrs. W. Z. Smith, organist of St. Luke's as the guests were being seated, and as the bridal party entered, the well known strains of the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's Lohengrin sounded forth. The Wedding March by Mendelssohn was used at the close of the ceremony.

Mrs. Douglas Harvey, the bride's sister and matron of honor, was very beautiful in a gown of blue and silver embroidery, with a large lounce of the silver lace about the hips, simulating the shepherdess costume. Silver lace butterflies stood out from the lace of the lounce. The maid of honor, Miss Virginia Pope, wore a French gown of pink embroidered in silver. Silver baskets with roses were carried by matron and maid of honor. The gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Grace Badger of Cambridge, Mass.; and Miss Gladys Steel of Dixon wearing green; Miss Lea Hunter of Pittsburg and Miss Dorothy White of Cambridge wearing blue; and Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns and Miss Dorothy Sears of Kenilworth, Ill.; wearing lavender, were also in a style resembling the shepherdess as nearly as can be described and yet at the same time new and beautiful, and very quaint in effect. All the gowns were French importations coming through Castberg, the Chicago importer. Each of the bridesmaids carried a silver staff bearing feathery green ferns tied with hydrangea colored tulle. Each wore silver slippers and stock ings.

Pathway of Roses

The bride upon the arm of her father, Horace Gifford Reynolds, was preceded by three little flower maidens, Dorothy Noble, Jean Bokhof and Margaret Dimick, all gowned alike in white and carrying silver baskets filled with pink rose petals which they strewed in the bride's pathway. The bride was regal in a gown of white satin and duchess lace, with a full court train of satin brocade. Her veil of tulle, that worn by her sister, Mrs. Douglas Harvey at her wedding enveloped her figure in graceful folds. A wreath of orange blossoms held the veil in place. A huge bunch of white Easter lilies was carried by Miss Reynolds.

Mr. Ralston awaited the coming of the bride at the altar. Douglas Harvey, the bride's brother-in-law, served as best man and Charles Y. Frye, man, Halstead D. Freeman, Thomas W. Cook, James G. Ralston and Dwight Harding of Chicago; James G. Ralston of Summit, N. J.; a brother of the groom—Carl H. Langenberg of St. Louis, and Bradford Brinton of this city, were the ushers. The Rev. Frederick C. Grant, rector of St. Luke's read the beautiful Episcopal ring service. The bride was given away by her father.

At the church, Mrs. Reynolds, the bride's mother, wore a handsome blue velvet creation with which was worn a hat of black tulle with orchids. The groom's mother, Mrs. Henry Martyn Ralston of Summit, N. J., was gowned in black and white satin. Many other beautiful gowns were worn by the guests, among whom were many from Chicago.

Out-of-Town Guests

The out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martyn Ralston of Summit, N. J., the parents of the groom; the groom's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Aiken of New York City; Mrs. Francis Gould of Lake Forest, Ill.; the groom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Ralston of Summit, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Y. Freeman, Miss Marion Forgan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox, Fletcher Dobyns, Mrs. Johanna Hess-Burr, Mr. and Mrs. William Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland and Miss Carol Kirkland, Captain Hawze, Mrs. Lears, Mr. and Mrs. James Gould, Mrs. B. H. Pope, Theodore Hincley, William Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hamilton, William Castberg, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rumsey, Andrew Sheriff, all of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. James Ward Thorne of Lake Forest; Mrs. W. G. Yantis of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Faulderoy of Geneva, Ill.; Sidney Fairlee of Kenilworth; Miss Sally Torrey of Beverly, Mass.; and John E. Earle of New Haven, Conn.

Reception and Luncheon

The wedding reception and luncheon at the Reynolds home was for the out of town guests and a few of Mrs. Ralston's Dixon friends. Autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the house. Angela of Chicago catered at the luncheon. In center of the bride's table rested an antique white urn, the property of Mrs. John H. Lyon, the bride's grandmother. In the urn pink roses and lilies of the valley were mingled.

In the fourth floor of the Reynolds home in an attic room made a bower of autumn leaves the presents were exhibited. Over 400 donors were represented. Shades of departed roses, but they were beautiful! Mrs. Ralston's friends remembered her joy in the antique and many presents were of valuable old silver, lacquer work, and china. The groom's gift was a diamond and platinum pin of great worth. One gift, striking in its beauty, was a silver tea set dating back to 1792, the Georgian period, and bearing the crest of an English family hailing back to the War of the Roses. The precious old silver, valued at 1,200 or more, was of beautiful design, a rarely quaint flower motif being used. The pieces, hot water pot, coffee urn, tea pot, creamer and sugar, rested on a mammoth silver tray. The service was picked up in London by Mr. Seltzer of Cleveland for John Newberry, who presented it. There was a complete set of cut crystal, a complete set of flat silver presented by Mr. Ralston's parents, a set of peerless Wedgwood china, fragile and exquisite. The latter was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. John Aiken of New York City, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Ralston. Mrs. Ralston's parents presented them with a handsome gift of stock in the Reynolds' Wire and other holdings. A handsome mirror, framed in lacquer work was the gift of the president of the American Steel and Wire Co. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Insull of Chicago presented an antique silver platter, brought from England. Quaint crystal cruets in a silver casket were the gift of the Peabodys. There was a rare old lace scarf from Rome, five pair of silver candle sticks, two real etchings from England, one the work of Joseph Penell, "The Thames at Richmond," and the other by Seymour Maden. A beaten brass hot water pot and brazier, no one knows how old, sat by a handsome banjo clock. Exquisite Bohemian glass was there, a set. A hand carved old ivory jewel chest, of years unnumbered, also brought from England hobnobbed with ten modern silver sandwich plates, for modern was there as well as the antique. Seventeen oriental rugs were among the gifts, satiny surfaced, with their soft, shimmering colors. Beautiful linens were also displayed, many of exquisite hand work. A gift that has already found repose in the new home at 201 E. Chamberlain street was a solid mahogany four-poster bed, the posts ten feet high, and with those two quaint steps by which it must be entered. Another gift, a huge davenport, was also there. The home is all ready and but waiting the bestowing of the beautiful gifts and the return of Mr. and Mrs. Ralston from their trip.

Their wedding trip

They will first go to Atlantic for a week and then hie themselves to the lodge of a Canadian hunting and fishing club beyond Montreal, for a honeymoon in the open. Mrs. Ralston wore a suit of tete de negre cloth designed at Castberg's, with a French hat of black with silver trimmings as they started on their trip. They plan to be back and installed in their new home by January first.

Mrs. Ralston is a granddaughter of the late John Hooper Lyon of New York. She was a student for four years of Miss Kelly's school at Cambridge, Mass., and it was there that she made the friendship of two of her bridesmaids, Miss Badger and Miss White. Mrs. Ralston studied music at Miss Kelly's school and of celebrated teachers in Boston and Chicago. Her voice is of a rich quality, clear and sympathetic, and she has appeared in the professional world with orchestras and musicians of fame. Her personality is of singular charm, enthusiastic and whole-souled, and she has unusual beauty, rich coloring and patrician features, with a splendid physique.

Mr. Ralston, who has recently been made a member of the Reynolds Wire Co. of which Mrs. Ralston's father is president, has already firmly established himself in the liking of Dixon people. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martyn Ralston of Summit, N. J., formerly of Chicago, and a grandson of the late John Searns Gould, a Chicago pioneer. Mr. Ralston graduated from Princeton University and is a member of the Saddle and Cycle club of Chicago, and also of the Winter club of Lake Forest.

REWARDS OF THE FARM.

The rewards of the farm are many, says the Indianapolis Farmer. We know there is no other man or woman so independent of the vicissitudes of the world as he or she with a few well-tilled acres of their own. The droughts may come and the tempests blow, yet there is always some little source of income that does not fail and flows on like the little stream from an inexhaustible spring.

There is no other investment so prolific of joy and happiness as that of a little farm house by the one who knows his calling. The fields of Nature are always open to our exploring feet, and Nature in that vast workshop of hers is a master at entertaining. The changing scenes of bud and leaf and blossom and fruit afford a depth of study that is yet far beyond the master minds of men. Perhaps at some far future time mankind may understand all that nature has to disclose and then he will live next door to the Master of Life. Farming is nothing more than a harmony of mankind, the clouds and the soil.

We believe that the farm offers better rewards to the youth of today than any other vocation. It requires a wise investment of both time and means, it is true, and yet what other work but is even more exacting? Life is so short at the best. The adult activities of a man measure over a very brief span of years and in no other vocation can a person grow old so gracefully as on a farm. It may require the best years of one's life to make and pay for a little farm, yet where could we spend them more profitably than in the open field is such is our bent in life? Many the country boy who leaves home under a seeming necessity who fully intends to make his little fortune in the city marts, then returns to the farm to spend his declining years in rest and peace. And the farm is its own best reward.

THE BETTER DAY FOR HAYTI.

Hayti will loom large upon the roll of honor whereon are recorded the achievements of the United States Marine Corps. A "good job" efficiently done. The surrender of Mofreny, the only recalcitrant possessing any military strength, marks the end of opposition to American domination and ushers in the period of constructive upbuilding.

Establishment of the protectorate provided in the recently negotiated treaty will remove a sore spot that has long menaced the American hegemony over the Caribbean, which has been made doubly necessary by the construction of the Panama Canal. A revolution-rent Hayti would always be a possible victim to the European intrigue which has not infrequently shown its head and its hand in the vicinity of Mole St. Nicholas. From the standpoint of the United States a solution of the Haytian problem was imperative.

Its greater benefits will, however, accrue to the American people. Politics by revolution has had their bane and the blight of the little republic. Now that their own "gunmen" have been suppressed by the strong arm of the United States, the substantial elements will be to establish a decent government and once more participate in the benefits that go with decent government and civilization.

It is the dawn of a better day for a land where every prospect pleases and only politics is vile.—N. Y. Herald.

WALNUT TIME.

Man longs futilely these days to take his soul outdoors and wash it in sunshine. But it is Youth that points the way. Man can only long for life that knows not desk and collars and business; he cannot conceive of how to set about attaining his desires. Youth picks up its gunnysack its club of handy throwing length, and goes to the walnut grove.

There they stand, these monarchs who have shed their leaves early, so that Youth can better distinguish the prizes they hold. Blackbirds piping up from the stubble, with a rush and whirl of wings, fly athwart the sky and south. Youth stands upon its hilltop and sees the autumnal hegira in the heavens, and drinks it all in, and knows not how to describe it and does not bother to do so, and throws its club at the dusky green beauties up above, and calls: "O-ho Skin-nay, ain't they big ones this year? Just ain't they?"

Then, with gunnysacks filled, they tramp back home, over unkempt grass a-dying, over corn stubble and briar patch, hilltop and gully, marsh land and meadow, stream and road. And the watering sun going down to doat. And the gray shadows coming on decorously to take away the coffin. This it is to walk in Elysium, striking hands with Youth.—Kansas City Times.

STEPS TOWARD CITIZENSHIP.

Manhattan recently saw an innovation in naturalization procedure, by way of a brilliant ceremony to impress upon the new citizens the seriousness of their steps. Brooklyn is now taking the lead in an effort to improve knowledge of our institutions among alien residents seeking naturalization. This will be promoted by a booklet of over sixty pages distributed County Clerk Devoy, containing explicit information how to go about the matter of becoming a citizen, what are the studies required for naturalization and what it will cost. There is contained in the pamphlet a very plain explanation of naturalization laws and procedure, the declaration of independence, the federal constitution, a little history of the United States, a summary of the frame of state and city government, and other matters of value to one hoping to become a citizen.

There have been in the county clerk's office since the beginning of 1912 more than 124,000 applications for naturalization. Mr. Devoy's little book will be useful to all future applicants. The more extensively it can be distributed the more good it will do in promoting a well-qualified citizenship.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

"Serbs Declare War On Bulgaria," says the headlines, but a declaration of war hardly creates a ripple nowadays.

This kind of weather makes the duck hunters sit up and take notice. The World's Series is backing the war news off the front page.

CURRENT COMMENT

Waterloo Courier: Better get your "Hard Roads" button early. Put it on and wear it. Talk hard roads. Think hard on the hard roads question. Become a steadfast agitator.

Kendall County News: Hon. William H. Stead of Ottawa, for twelve years attorney general of the state, and we believe one of the very best the state has ever had, is to manage the campaign of Col. Frank O. Lowden for governor, and this is positive assurance that all interests and no part of the Republican party or faction will dominate Mr. Lowden's candidacy and that just as Mr. Lowden wants it.

Minneapolis Journal: The publication of advertising matter for or against any political issues involves no surrender of principle on the part of the journal. On the contrary, it involves merely the discharge of one of this newspaper's legitimate functions.

Hoopeston Herald: They are still indicting Eastland officials, but the relatives of some of the victims of the terrible disaster will have a long long wait before any of them are sent to the penitentiary.

Elgin News: One result of the European war will be stricter attention to citizenship in this country. A casual glance at the oath taken by foreigners when naturalized here would indicate that it is complete enough to cover all requirements of honorable citizenship, but developments of recent months have shown that there is something lacking, at least in the spirit of its acceptance, by some of our newly-coined citizens.

Nish Reports Invaders Destroyed or Captured.

BULGARIA JOINS IN THE WAR

Sofia Issues Manifesto in Favor of Germany and Troops Invade Macedonia—Greek Cabinet Decides That Treaty With Serbia Does Not Necessitate War Defending Her.

London, Oct. 9.—The advance guard of the Austro-Germans who crossed the Danube at Belgrade, has been partly captured, and those who entered Serbian territory across the Save have met with enormous losses, according to an official dispatch received by the Serbian legation from Nish.

Paris, Oct. 9.—By messenger to New York—Last week the Prince of Wales, while taking tea in an inn at a British outpost near Ypres was shot in the arm by a French corporal. The attendant at the inn is an attractive looking young woman who was passing as an unmarried girl under the name of Barthou, but as a matter of fact she is married to a corporal in a French huzzar regiment named Huguet.

The corporal had received exaggerated reports of attentions to his wife by other men. Getting a leave of absence he went to the inn. Seeing his wife serving the Prince and a companion and talking to them, he shot the prince in the arm and turning the weapon on himself fired and was wounded in the neck before the prince and his companion could disarm him. The prince took the corporal to a field hospital in his motor car. No official notice will be paid the incident.

London, Oct. 9.—With 400,000 Teutons under General von Mackensen already established on Serbian soil and driving to take the railroad from Belgrade to Saloniki and Constantinople, the Serbian trunk line for supplies, Berlin announces further advance of the invaders, while Rome dispatches declared Bulgaria had struck her first blow by crossing the frontier into Serbian Macedonia.

Simultaneously, the new Greek coalition cabinet decided that it was not called upon to enter the war in defense of Serbia, and, according to Berlin advices, Bulgaria issued a manifesto announcing her intention to enter the war on the side of the central powers.

Greece to Be Neutral. Outside the actual military activities in the Balkans, which Friday proceeded by land, sea and air, the most important developments of the day came in Athens. In the Greek situation now lies the greatest hope of the entente allies, and this hope was greatly dimmed by Friday's developments.

A Berlin dispatch announced that the German government has protested to Greece against the landing of allied troops at Saloniki. The Athens official news agency, however, announced that there is no foundation for rumors that the new cabinet intended to protest against the landing of troops.

The Times correspondent at Athens telegraphs that the Greek government has decided to declare an attitude of benevolent neutrality toward the Allies.

An Athens dispatch states that Premier Zaimis and his neutrality cabinet have decided that the terms of the Serbo-Greek alliance do not require the intervention of Greece in the war to defend Serbia. This decision, completely endorsing the position taken by King Constantine, was reached at an all-night session of the ministry, which adjourned early in the day after drawing up a program which will be presented to the chamber of deputies on Monday.

Reports to King. Before seeking any rest, Premier Zaimis went to the royal palace and laid the cabinet program before King Constantine, who is understood to have approved of it in full.

The cabinet program maintains that Greece must be absolutely neutral, but at the same time must keep its military forces in a state of preparedness.

As soon as the program is presented to parliament on Monday a vote of confidence in the ministry will be moved. Supporters of the cabinet assert that this vote will be given even if ex-Premier Venizelos' followers should oppose it.

Hindenburg Getting Many Nails. Berlin, Oct. 9.—The great statue got up in Berlin as a permanent memorial to be placed on Field Marshal von Hindenburg's estate is getting many nails. In it are driven nails of iron, silver and gold, each person driving a nail donating a sum to the relief of the war sufferers.

MOTHER! DONT TAKE CHANGES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold, or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside-cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Karl Liebknecht, the famous German socialist, who is fighting in the engineering corps on the eastern front, has been injured in the head by a falling tree. Because of his opposition to the war the government last May ordered him to join the army.

Infantry Advancing

French guns have cut to pieces the dense marshes and the infantry is advancing to the attack in the Loos district, Paris says.

Petrograd is watching with some concern the massing of Austro-German troops in Bukovina, near the Bessarabian frontier. The concentration is close to Roumania, whose future action is problematical. Berlin claims Roumania will remain neutral.

Dramatic Notes

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight Manager Slothower has booked two splendid features, first being "The Lion, the Woman and the Man," a Centaur with Roy Wilson and Madam Ottawa in the leading roles, a story of how a lion aided in the destruction of a notorious soul destroyer. The other is a two reel Keystone comedy entitled "Those College Girls," with "Hogan" in the leading role; this comedy is very funny.

On Sunday night the Princess will show a one reel American feature entitled "It Was Like This," with Winfield Greenwood and Ed. Coxen in the leading roles, a dandy story of burglars and babies. The other pictures are "Bizzy Izzy," a two reel comedy. The last reel is a Thanhouser drama, "The Miracle," with Eleanor Spaulding and Ethel Joyce in the leading roles, a drama in which a criple's prayers are answered.

FAMILY THEATRE.

The present vaudeville bill at the Family close its engagement tonight and tomorrow night the following excellent program will be given:
The Musical Steps in a high class musical act; Paddock & Paddock, singing, talking and dancing team; Desyreita & Smith, eccentric comedians, and the Three Amers, comedy acrobats.

Picture tonight is the great six act feature play "Via Wireless" featuring Gail Kane and Bruce McRae. Tomorrow night the wonderful Mary Pickford will appear in a six reel subject
"Behind the Scenes," a short synopsis of which follows: "Behind the Scenes" is an absorbing play that contrasts the drama of life with the glamor of the stage. It is human throughout and depicts the struggle and sorrows of the little soubrette for theatrical fame, her great sacrifice for love just when success is within reach.

Matinees will be given every day, except Sunday, showing a feature six part picture and four acts of vaudeville.

"JUST BOYS," AT THE PRINCESS THEATRE, CHICAGO

At the Princess Theatre last Sunday night William Elliott presented "Just Boys." This new play is a dramatization of a novel by Katherine Browning Miller and Allena Kan-ka, and is built about a Judge of the Juvenile Court in New York City Judge Ben Lindsey and his system of handling delinquents in the Juvenile Court at Denver, furnished the authors with material for the novel and the stage production.

In the play the heart of the Judge is always first in dealings with the cases before him, and it was because he put his whole heart into the work that he neglected his wife, who, driven to seek other companionship, promotes a quarrel, and she leaves, taking their three-year old son away.
For eight years the Judge divides his time between his court and his hunt for his child.

Finally his wife relents and brings the boy back to live in a tenement within sight of the Judge's home.
The boy gets into bad company and is arrested on his eleventh birthday for stealing pigeons, and is arraigned before his own father. This is the big scene of the play.

The characters are enacted by players of unusual excellence, including Ernest Truex, Milton Sills, Mattie Ferguson, Mary Elizabeth Forbes,
Miss Gladys Wynne, a cousin of Edith Wynne Mathison, Roland Rushton and Master Macomber.

There will be a popular matinee on Thursdays for this engagement, when the best seats will cost but one dollar. The regular matinee will be given on Saturday.

THE GARRICK—CHICAGO— THE PASSING SHOW OF 1915—

"The Passing Show of 1915" will embrace travesties on the most successful plays of the past and present season, such as "Experience," "The Song of Songs," "The Law of the Land," "Twin Beds," "The Peasant Girl," "Taking Chances," "The White Feather," "Tribby," "Andro-cles and the Lion," "Kick in,"
"Daddy Long Legs," "Polygamy,"
"Under Cover," and others. The production will serve to bring back to Chicago many favorites of past seasons, such as Eugene and Willie Howard, who were seen in "The Whirl of the World," George Monroe, who played in "The Passing Show of last Season," Marilyn Miller, Boyle and Brazil, Daphne Pollard, John T. Murray, and many others. Mr. Monroe has been cast for the role of Lily, in search of the song of songs, who during her wanderings crosses the path of one Daniel Calkins, a polygamist. Willie Howard, in addition to singing a number of new songs, one of which brings in imitations, will play the role of Sammy, an orphan boy. Eugene Howard will be "R. J.," the secret service officer. Miss Miller will be "First Love," Miss Pollard, a modern working girl, and Mr. Murray, "Experience." There are over thirty speaking parts in the play, and the company in all numbers. 125 people, which includes a large chorus of bewitching and supercaptivating dancers.

During the Chicago engagement there will be three matinees each week, popular dollar matinees on Wednesday and Thursday, and the regular Saturday matinee at the usual prices. Seats are now on sale at the box office for the first four weeks of the engagement, and special attention to requests for reservations will be given to out-of-town patrons.

lawyers in the state, and Attorney H.
C. Ward of Sterling. These two men defended the Byers sisters a year ago in their trial at Morrison on the charge of murdering their brother, Emanuel Byers at his farm north of Sterling and they were acquitted by a jury. The defendant will be represented by Attorney Daley of Peoria and Attorney John E.
Erwin of this city. The papers in the suit were gotten out a number of months ago but owing to the fact that the defendant was a traveling man and going from one county to another it was hard to locate him to get service. It was by chance he was served in Lee county, hence the suit will be tried in Dixon.

The chase for the man would have been an interesting story in itself, but this is a minor part of the real story. It is alleged that the wife of the plaintiff and the defendant were at various places together in a manner that caused the defendant to bring suit on the grounds of alienation of his better half's affection. It is hinted that the defendant has some evidence that will offset certain of the charges of the plaintiff.

SPIRITS NEGRO AWAY; ILLINOIS MOB FOILED

Girl Near Shelbyville Alleges She Was Attacked.

Shelbyville, Ill., Oct. 9.—Fearing mob violence, Sheriff Sidney H. Biggs of Shelby county spirited Will Spencer, a negro, from the Shelbyville jail to Hillsboro for safe keeping. The negro is charged with having attacked
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hilliard, near Dunn Station. The girl later is said to have identified Spencer as her assailant. A posse pursued and captured Spencer a short time after the alleged attack.

Miss Hilliard says she was en route home from the station on foot, when she was met and attacked by the negro, whom she fought off. The news was quickly spread to neighbors.
Farmers organized a posse and went in pursuit. They captured Spencer near Bethany and, accompanied by Deputy Funston, took him to the county jail at Shelbyville for safekeeping.
Spencer is said to have confessed.
The Hilliard girl is bedfast and suffering with a severe nervous shock.

POPULAR CITIZEN OF LEE COUNTY IS DEAD

Wooster took up the law practice of Mr. Trusdell and cared for it in such a manner that he soon won for himself a position of respect in the Lee county bar. He later formed a partnership with C. B. Morrison, now United States Master-in-Chancery, and the firm of Morrison & Wooster had offices in both Dixon and Amboy.
for Charles Wooster was intensely loyal to his home town of Amboy and never during his life could he be induced to leave Amboy, although at times it would have been advangeous to him to have done so.

Held Many Offices.

Charles Wooster, as he was best known to his countless friends, was never a seeker of public office and, although he held many, it was because of the insistence of his friends.
He was naturally diffident and retiring and much preferred the privacy of his busy law practice to the honor of public office. During his life he filled the following positions: In 1900 he was elected states attorney on the republican ticket. He was re-elected in 1904 and served until 1908.
He was mayor of Amboy for several years and was an alderman of that city for many years. He also served several terms on the board of education of Amboy. Mr. Wooster's record also includes several years as city attorney of Amboy.

Mr. Wooster married Miss Lewis, a former Amboy girl, at her home in Rockford about twenty years ago. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H.
Wooster and his father, a prominent real estate and business man in Amboy, was also very high in Masonic circles. Charles Wooster was also a Mason.

A Lovable Man.

It is difficult to say of Charles Wooster enough of the things that should be said of him. Those who knew him well simply loved the man.
They loved him for his cleverness, his kindness, his wit and humor, and they admired him for his masterful ability as a lawyer, his versatility and his absolute fearlessness. He was noted for his droll wit and his geniality. At a writer of humor he could have become famous and he possessed great talent with the drawing pencil, which, unfortunately, he never attempted to develop. His natural shyness was probably responsible for his failure to make the most of his ability along other lines than those of his chosen profession, but as a lawyer, there was nothing to be regretted, for the lawyers and jurists of this section of the state are of one opinion, that Charles Wooster had no superior in his mastery of the law and his ability to interpret it.

Charles Wooster will be sadly missed in Lee county. With him died a genius, a true lawyer, a loyal friend and a jovial spirit.

SAVE FOR WAR, WE'D BE TALKING NOW BY WIRELESS TO EUROPE.

"There is not a shadow of doubt that wireless telephony across the Atlantic ocean is assured in the future," said William Marconi in London. Mr. Marconi expressed deep interest in the news that Washington had talked by wireless with Honolulu, and that efforts were under way to connect up with Japan. He said: "While it is likely that the operators had to wait for advantageous atmospheric conditions, the fact that wireless telephony was accomplished from Washington to Honolulu is extremely interesting. It does not matter if, for the present, such a result is possible only under ideal conditions. That talking over such a distance has been possible makes it certain that whatever obstacles may exist at present in the way of a fairly perfect service will be removed after further experiments. Two years ago I said that within a few years arrangements would be perfected so that telephonic wireless across the Atlantic would be established. Had it not been for the war, which made it necessary to stop our experiments, we would probably have had a transatlantic telephone wireless service by now. London might be talking over the telephone every day with New York." The map shows the recent extension in wireless telephony. The group of men in the photograph helped in the development of wireless telephony. From left to right they are: Bancroft Gherardi, engineer of plant, U. N. Bethell, senior vice president, F. A. Stevenson, general superintendent of plant, Theodore N. Vail, president, K. W. Waterson, engineer of traffic, W. Murray Crane, director, O. B. Blackwell, engineer, John I. Waterbury, director, and H. P. Chaffersworth, engineer, all of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, and H. Christopher, special wire man of the New York Telephone company.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health. When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with such headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

DIXON PROMINENT ON FIVE MARKED ROUTES

STATE HIGHWAY ENGINEER COMPILES MAP OF STATE AND ROADS.

MANY OF HISTORIC INTEREST

The idea has been taken up by W. W. Marr, chief state highway engineer, to get out a map of the state showing all principal roads designated as state roads, as it is on these the state aid money is to be expended. Mr. Marr is securing data from county highway superintendents as to the location of the routes in their counties. County Superintendent Neighborhood of Lee county has completed the marking of the routes in Lee county and will forward it to the state engineer.

Dixon is favored by being on five routes. This city in an early day was a half-way point on the stage route from Peoria to Galena and there are several historical roads leading out of the city. Much grain was hauled from here over the old Chicago road to the Chicago market. These roads retain their old names and if an old timer is asked directions he will direct you over these old roads, yet some are to day known by special routes.

The five routes starting or passing through here are:

1. Lincoln highway, entering Lee county on the north and extending to Sterling, westerly. The marking on the telephone poles consists of three horizontal lines, red, white and blue, with the letter L, in white, in the middle.

2. Chicago, Kansas City & Gulf route. As far as Lee county is concerned this follows the Lincoln highway, joining it at Geneva and leaving at Galt. It is marked by metallic signs on the poles painted yellow with diagonal cross in center. At the corners appear the letters C. K. C. G.

3. Southwestern Trail. This likewise follows the Lincoln Highway through Lee county. It is marked with two black bands placed horizontally on the poles and the letters, S. W. T.

4. Starved Rock Trail. This extends from Dixon to the state park at Starved Rock on the Illinois river and follows the old Chicago road southeasterly from Dixon to Inlet and then south to Shaw Station, where the Chicago road turns east. The trail continues on south to Sublette, following the east side of the Illinois Central tracks to the south line of Lee county at Henkel, where it crosses the tracks and then runs into Mendota, going from there southeasterly to the park.

5. River Road Route. This route is only projected and has not yet been marked and runs from Dixon to Rockford. The plan is to follow the Rock River valley keeping as close to the stream as the present road locations may permit. It leaves Lee county where it crosses Rock river at the Grand Detour bridge.

STOP CONVICTS' KEY MAKING

Joliet Officials Act After Confession of Ex-Prisoner to Police Here.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The key-making industry, which thrived for a time among the convicts at Joliet, employed in the machine shops, has been curtailed by the confession of Joseph Heller, Heller was arrested Sept. 12 in a Madison street saloon, five days after his release from prison. Skeleton keys and a quantity of loot, said to have been stolen from several Kenosha homes, were found on his person. He told the officers the keys were made in the Joliet machine shops.

Prisoners employed in the machine shops at the prison were searched and a large number of keys taken. Heller was taken to Kenosha.

FRENCH ARE NEARING IMPORTANT RAILROAD

Republic's Troops Carry More Trenches in Champagne.

Paris, Oct. 9.—Guns roared more violently on the northern battle front than during the terrific fighting Sept. 25, when the allies began their great drive. The upshot of the day's cannonading and furious French infantry plunges was a considerable gain for the French.

"In Champagne," says the night's official report, "we have made new and perceptible progress southeast of Tahure. He have gained a foothold in the fortified work 'Le Trepeze' and carried several trenches and two blockhouses included in the salient still held by the enemy in front of his second line of defense. More than 200 prisoners, a bombthrower and some machine guns were captured by us." Despite a fierce German cannonade the French south of St. Souplet are steadily approaching the enemy's supply railroad, says a dispatch received from the front in the afternoon.

SKINNER REPORT STIRS IRE

U. S. Consul Has Incurred Wrath of British Officials.

Washington, Oct. 9.—British anger at American Consul General Skinner of London may prevent his return to his post. He is en route here to confer with state department officials regarding British interference with American trade.

Skinner's report that American exports to neutral ports were being held up, while British merchants were exporting the same merchandise, has caused displeasure among British officials.

WOMAN IS FOLLOWED 1,000 MILES, KILLED

Mysterious Murder Committed in Minneapolis Hotel.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 9.—While apparently seeking to escape from an enemy supposed to have followed her for more than 1,000 miles, Mrs. Katharine Arnold, 104 Clinton street, Buffalo, N. Y., was slain in a small hotel here by a man who walked into the place and asked to see her. She was choked and badly beaten, but no one in the hotel heard any commotion.

The police held four witnesses. They are James Hirsch, night clerk, who discovered the body; Lillian Huffman and Anna Levin, women living in the hotel, and Samuel Hall, another night clerk.

Mary Garden Regains Health.
London, Oct. 9.—Mary Garden, the American soprano, has telegraphed here from her country place, Strichen, Scotland, that she is slowly regaining her health after the breakdown in the summer from hospital work. She says she was not operated on for appendicitis as reported.

WHY WOMEN SUFFER

MANY DIXON WOMEN ARE LEARNING THE CAUSE

Women often suffer, not knowing the cause.
Backache, headache, dizziness, nervousness,
Irregular urinary passages, weakness, languor—
Each a torture of itself.
Together hint at weakened kidneys.

Strike at the root—get to the cause.

No other remedy more highly endorsed than Doan's Kidney Pills. Recommended by thousands—Endorsed at home.

Here's convincing testimony from a Dixon citizen.

Mrs. W. Geiger, 1218 W. Sixth St., Dixon, says: "I get a dull pain in my back, especially when I wash or sweep much. As soon as I feel one of these attacks coming on, I use Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procure at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug Store and they never fail to remove the trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Geiger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Bandits Hold Up B. and O. Mail Train.

$2,000,000 IS OVERLOOKED

Two Masked Men Detach Locomotive and Mail Cars, and Rifled Latter at Leisure—Much Registered Mail Is Stolen—Robbers Apparently Former Railroad Men.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 9.—A Baltimore and Ohio express train which left New York Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for St. Louis was held up about 2 o'clock the next morning near Central, W. Va., by two masked men. The engine and mail cars were cut off and run ahead of the train, much booty taken and then the robbers escaped through the hills in the direction of the Ohio river.

The passengers did not know for some time that anything happened and the train crew left with the stalled cars did not realize that there had been a robbery. They started out in search of the missing engine and soon met the firemen running back to give the alarm. The engineer, Grant Hoelm, heard the men climb over the coal tender and turned to see an automatic shot gun levelled at his head. The other robber was similarly armed and both wore masks. With Hoelm and the fireman covered, one of the men ordered Hoelm to stop and then had him cut off the engine and mail cars. Free of the train the robber stood by Hoelm and told him to run down the track two miles.

500,000 Unsigned Money.

Then the engineer and fireman were ordered to the ground, one of the robbers took the throttle and ran the engine about two miles farther on where they rifled the mail cars at their leisure. They took all the registered mail in which were $500,000 of unsigned bank notes, and about 100 other packages.

When reports of the robbery reached Parkersburg, the division headquarters, railroad and county detectives were at once sent to the scene of the robbery and took up the trail of the men.

Poses of 100 men were ranging the hills before daylight looking for the train robbers and had with them a number of bloodhounds. Four men were sighted in the foothills near Central Station not long after the sheriff's men got to work and at last reports they were being run down.

Once Railroad Men, Belief.

From the fact that the men seemed familiar with locomotive. Hoelm thinks that they had at one time been railroad men. He could not give a good description of them. When he found his engine the fires had been drawn and precautions taken to prevent an explosion if steam got up while it was unattended.

Missed $2,000,000.

Just how much booty the robbers got could not be learned, but it is believed to have been large. It was reported that in an express car which the robbers did not detach was $2,000,000 in gold.

Commissioners Say American Property Has Been Destroyed in Armenia.

New York, Oct. 9.—The statement by the department of state that no American life or property has been affected by the Turkish campaign to exterminate the Armenian race was criticised by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions.
